

TryCycle

Little Bobby Roark decided one day that he wanted to visit San Francisco, so one day he got on his tricycle and followed the sign his parents had once showed him. Bobby didn't know how far away San Francisco was from Sacramento, or that he probably wouldn't make the trip in a few hours. And Bobby didn't know about the big bullies who were 7 years old and liked to beat up on little 3-year-olds on their way to San Francisco. Bob Roark later became a musician and played with the famous Dick Jurgens orchestra, and sold insurance in Whittier, CA. See if you can hear Bobby on his tricycle traveling toward San Francisco, the bullies who beat him up, and Bobby's fast return to the safety of his own home.
